Martha Jones is the new companion! Martha, played by actress Freema Agyeman, will join the Doctor in the TARDIS next year. Find out more about Martha in future issues...

FREEMA SPEAKS!

"I've been keeping this secret from my friends for months – it's been driving me mad!" says Freema. "Auditioning with David in secret down in Cardiff was unbelievable and I never thought in my wildest dreams I'd actually become the new companion. It still hasn't sunk in – I'm sure it will slam home first day on set when I'm stood gazing at David Tennant!"

Did you know?

Freema Agyeman has appeared in Doctor Who already – she was taken over by the Cybermen! Luckily, Martha is a new character.

MORE WHO!

In this month's Doctor Who Magazine for older readers, there's an interview with Freema Agyeman and Torchwood boss Tracy-Ann Oberman. They also look at The Impossible Planet and Fear Her. Out now!

HERE COMES THE BRIDE!

So who is the mysterious bride who popped up at the end of the last series? It's all top secret, but we do know that her name's Donna, and she'll play a big part in The Runaway Bride, this year's Who Christmas special. Can't wait!

At first they looked like ordinary humans like Margaret Blaine – but a quick unzip of the head and a yucky Slitheen from the planet Raxacoricofallapatorius pops out!

A IS FOR ABZORBALOFF

FIRST APPEARED IN: Love & Monsters (2006)

PLAYED BY: Peter Kay

LOOKS LIKE: A massive slimy green jelly baby... with pointy hair on top! Rose thought he looked a bit like a Slitheen.

MONSTER STORY: This yucky green creature disguised itself as a mysterious man called Victor Kennedy. Beneath Victor's skin lay a monster... who was christened ABZORBALOFF by both Elton Pope and the Doctor. 'Victor' absorbed all his victims – he wanted to absorb the Doctor and steal the TARDIS...

Freaky fact

The Abzorbaloff comes from Clom – the twin planet of Raxacorricofallapatorius.

SECRETS!

The monster was created by Blue Peter competition winner, William Grantham – who had intended him to be the size of a double decker bus!

Most likely to: Absorb you!
Least likely to: Be your friend

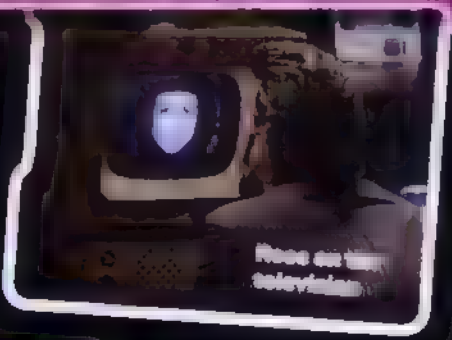
THE IDIOT'S LANTERN



WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT?

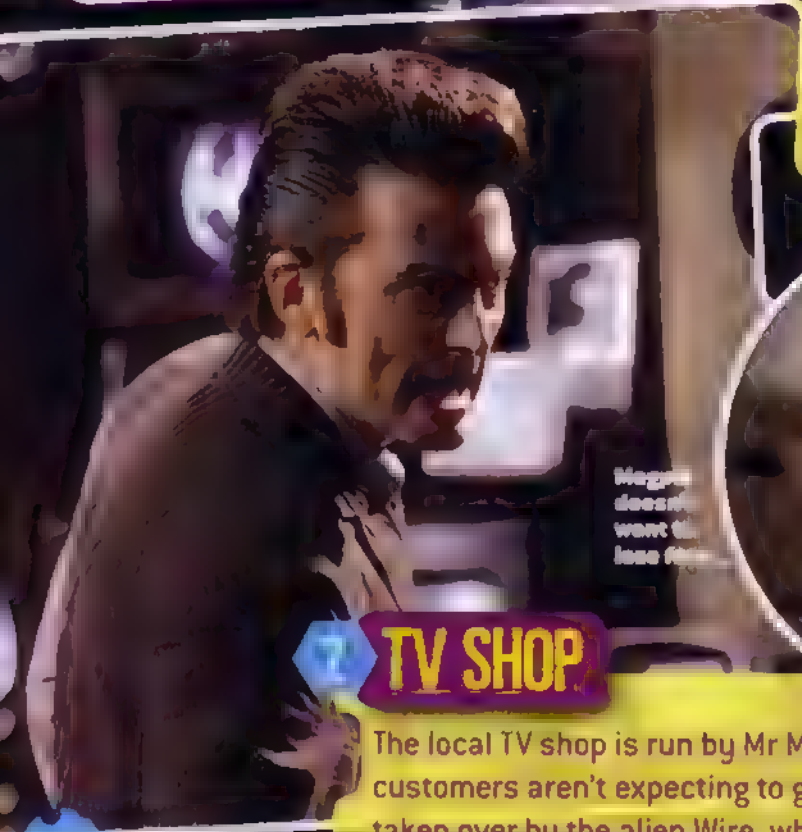
Television can be bad for you – as anyone who buys their new TV from Mr Magpie's shop is finding out. Watch one of his TVs and an alien called the Wire will steal your face! Oh no!

Words by Justin Richards

The Doctor and Rose join the celebrations!

1 A NEW QUEEN

1953 was the year of the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II. Television was only just starting, but in the week before the coronation two million new TV sets were sold. That's a lot of TVs for an alien TV announcer to invade!



Magpie doesn't want to lose

2 TV SHOP

The local TV shop is run by Mr Magpie, who sells them cheap. But customers aren't expecting to get a free alien. Magpie has been taken over by the alien Wire, who wants to feed on human life.

5 SECRET SERVICES

People are being taken away – anyone affected by the Wire is arrested. But no one knows where they are taken, until the Doctor finds the sinister Mr Bishop – who is keeping all the faceless people together, including poor Rose.

3 THE WIRE

The Wire is an alien that feeds on the electrical content of the brain. She'll use this to create herself a new body, because right now she's just an image on the TV. But an image that can pull people's faces off!

6 CLOSEDOWN

With the Wire trying to take over everyone, and Rose trapped as just a television picture, it's up to the Doctor to close down the Wire. He races to the TV transmitter to save the day – does he manage it? Of course he does!

1 HAPPY FAMILIES?

The Connolly family have a new TV, but Gran's been locked in her room. The Wire's stolen her face and Eddie doesn't want anyone to know because the faceless ones are disappearing!

No body

The Wire wants to create a new body for herself, because her fellow aliens wouldn't let her.

Find out how THE IDIOT'S LANTERN was made on page 22

Sarah Jane SPEAKS!

How did you find returning to Doctor Who?

Although I was going back to the same series, I wasn't going back to my old team. In School Reunion I met a new Doctor, but a Doctor I could still admire, and trust and love. Sarah had met the Doctors before, though. I suppose it's like talking to the same person!

Any funny stories?

I think Billie wanted a K-9 to take home – but on the first take he ran her over!

Are you like Sarah?

I didn't used think so but I have recently when watching them again – I see so many of the things that I do in Sarah and I can see so much of my daughter!

IN MY LAST STORY, TOM BAKER (WHO PLAYED THE FOURTH DOCTOR) AND I WE WERE VERY NAUGHTY! I SLIPPED DOWN A SLOPE BY ACCIDENT. WE BOTH STARTED TO GIGGLE AND COULDN'T STOP!

What would you do if you met a monster?

If I was on my own I really [illegible] protect someone else I think

What old monsters should come back next?

The Ice Warriors would be good... or maybe the Sontarans with their potato heads!

What was your favourite story?

There was a story called Planet of Evil set in an alien jungle. I am fond of my first story, The Time Warrior – I got massive speeches in it! And in The Sontaran Experiment, we filmed on Dartmoor where there are adders – I wore Wellingtons and plastic bags. I thought if I was bitten by a snake it was only going to get a bit of plastic!

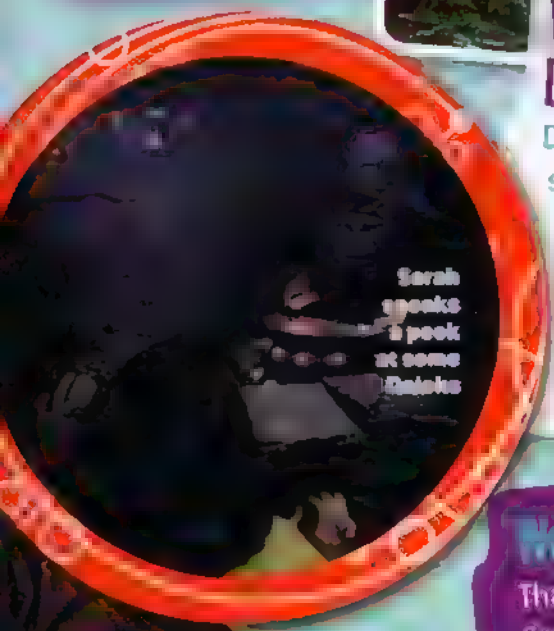
LEAVING WHO

When Sarah said goodbye to Mr Dorkins...

Elisabeth originally left the series in 1976 in a four-part story called The Hand of Fear.

In her last story, Sarah is taken over by a creepy fossilised hand when she becomes trapped beneath some rubble in a quarry.

At the end, Sarah is forced to leave the Doctor and the TARDIS. She had travelled with the Doctor for a long time – so it's very sad!



Sarah sneaks a peek at some Daleks

Who do you prefer – Daleks or Cybermen?

Daleks. Always. There's something about them. Maybe it's the history. I remember the moment in the studio when Sarah sees a Dalek for the first time – the hairs on the back of my neck stood up!

Would you ever leave?

That's not up to me! I don't think Sarah will ever stop, though – there will always be things she could come back and do!

WIN! HAND OF FEAR DVDS

The Hand of Fear is out on DVD now and, thanks to the kind people at BBC DVD, we've got five copies of the story to give away. Just answer this easy question below for a chance to win! Good luck!

In which story did Sarah Jane meet the 10th Doctor?

Mark your envelope HAND OF FEAR DVD and send to the address on page 29.

The Doctor's data

File: 08 CASSANDRA

Notes about a very old enemy!

WHO IS SHE?

The Lady Cassandra O'Brien Dot Delta Seventeen claimed to be the last surviving human being. She was invited to watch the destruction of the Earth from Platform One...

CASSANDRA'S STORY

Married several times, she had over 700 operations to keep her young. The Lady eventually ended up as just a stretched piece of skin in a metal frame. Ouch.

EXPENSIVE TASTES

Cassandra's only real desire was money to pay for more operations, so she used special spider robots to sabotage Platform One and intended to claim insurance money!

MOISTURISE HER!

The Doctor exposed her plan and when he separated her from her moisturising assistants she dried out and exploded. Yuck. But Cassandra's brain survived...

BODY SNATCHING

When they met again, Cassandra took over Rose's body and then tried to blackmail the Sisters of Plenitude.

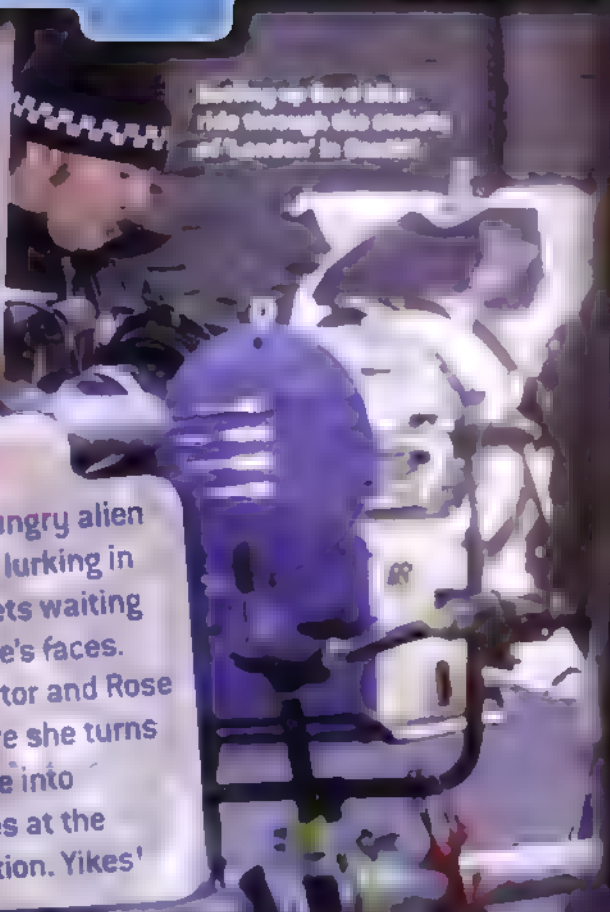
THE END

The Doctor took a dying Cassandra back in time to meet her younger self before she died. She finally accepted that nothing lasts forever.

Cut along dotted lines and keep in case Cassandra returns!

FACE OFF!

Hold on to your faces as the Doctor Who Confidential team go behind the scenes of The Idiot's Lantern...



THE STORY

It's 1953 and a hungry alien called the Wire is lurking in the nation's TV sets waiting to feast on people's faces. It's up to the Doctor and Rose to stop her before she turns 20 million people into faceless zombies at the Queen's Coronation. Yikes!

Extra info

The name Idiot's Lantern is 1950s slang for a television.

STRANGE STREET

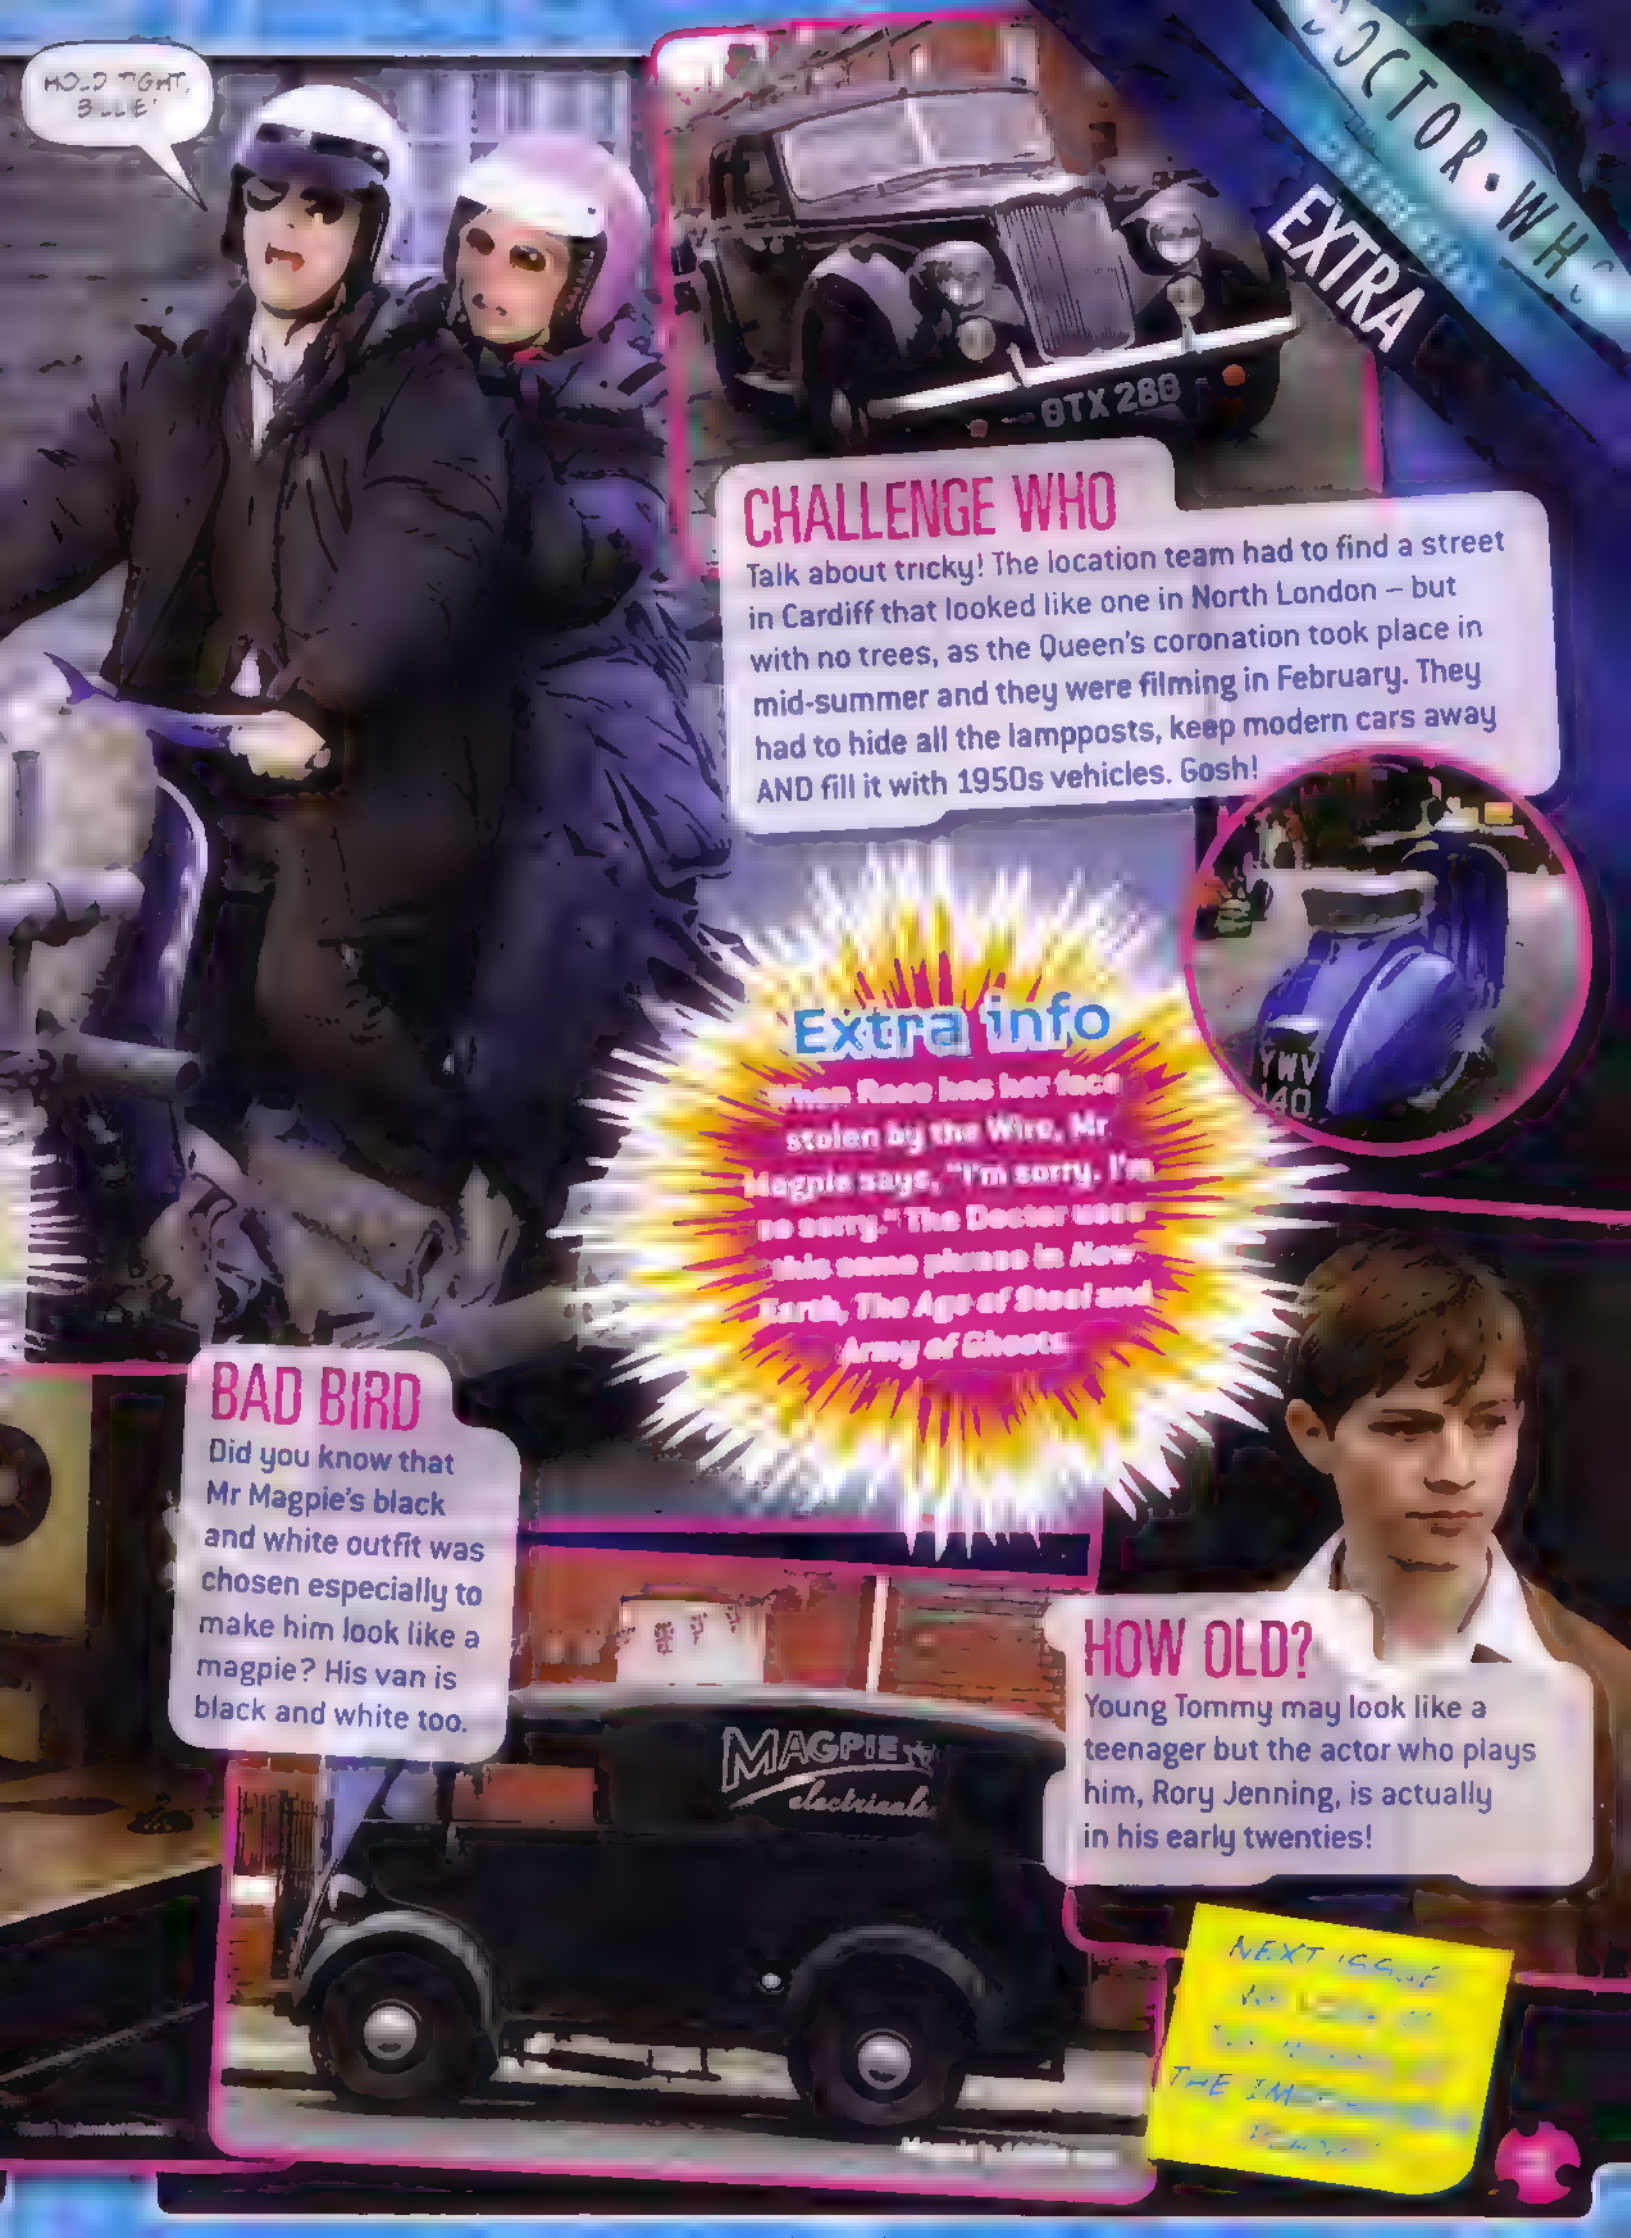
It may look like a normal street but if you look carefully you might see that the doors and windows are really fake ones! The Doctor Who art department made special 1950s style ones and stuck them over the real doors and windows. Clever!

HUNGRY! HUNGRY!

Maureen Lipman, the actress who plays the Wire, never met the rest of the cast. Her part was filmed separately at Alexandra Palace.

OLD AND NEW

The props department faced a massive challenge to find all the 1950s televisions that they needed for this episode, so instead they made special 1950s style TV cases and put modern day tellies inside.



CHALLENGE WHO

Talk about tricky! The location team had to find a street in Cardiff that looked like one in North London – but with no trees, as the Queen's coronation took place in mid-summer and they were filming in February. They had to hide all the lampposts, keep modern cars away AND fill it with 1950s vehicles. Gosh!

Extra info

When Rose has her face stolen by the Wire, Mr Magpie says, "I'm sorry. I'm so sorry." The Doctor uses this same phrase in New Earth, The Age of Steel and Army of Ghosts.

BAD BIRD

Did you know that Mr Magpie's black and white outfit was chosen especially to make him look like a magpie? His van is black and white too.

HOW OLD?

Young Tommy may look like a teenager but the actor who plays him, Rory Jenning, is actually in his early twenties!

Wolf mask

Put on TV most for a brilliant Werewolf!

1. Cut out the wolf head on the right and stick it onto a piece of thin card. Make sure you have finished with page 28 first!
2. When dry, cut around the mask with a pair of scissors. Carefully cut the eyes out too.
3. Use a piece of string or elastic to fix the mask to your face. Make a hole on each side and tie the string to both sides. Ask an adult to help you make sure it is the right length.

The wolf story

An alien from another world, this monster fell to Earth in 1540. Every full moon the creature would howl and change into a slavering wolf. Hooow!
